About the Native American Youth Summit

The Youth Summit focuses on New Ways for young urban Native Americans to advocate for themselves through strengthening of life skills including healthy relationships, coping skills, leadership development, opportunities after high school, and navigating adulthood. Overall, the goal of the summit is to help Native American youth prepare for a bright today and an even brighter future. It is anticipated that 150 youth, grades 9 to 12, will attend the summit.

Sponsorships Needed

ONE Gas has generously donated their space. Sponsorships are still needed to help fund speakers, breakfast, lunch, afternoon snacks, prizes/giveaways, and t-shirts and bags.
